Warren R. Slavin Receives AJAS Dr. Herbert Shore Award of Honor

ROCKVILLE, Md., April 4, 2017 – Warren R. Slavin, Charles E. Smith Life Communities (CESLC) CEO Emeritus received the 2017 Dr. Herbert Shore Award of Honor from the Association of Jewish Aging Services (AJAS). The award was presented during AJAS Annual Conference held this week in Memphis, Tennessee. According to AJAS, the honoree is an outstanding executive professional who, by his/her performance and contributions, best exemplifies the goals and ideals of AJAS and service to Jewish older adults.

Slavin served as CESLC's President and CEO and recently retired after 22 years of service. Slavin transformed the organization in remarkable ways, achieving superior quality, broadening the scope of services for older adults, strengthening financial stability and optimizing human resources.

"It is not hard to see the impact that Warren has had at Charles E. Smith Life Communities. One has only to walk through the buildings and campus and feel the love, compassion and commitment of the staff and caregivers. That comes from inspiring leadership," said AJAS President and CEO Donald J. Shulman.
